Some things change

Given our somewhat haphazard schedule when issuing of these newsletters it's not surprising that we might have some catch-up efforts required. In no particular order...

- Summer hours are coming after the May 2-4 weekend. Late night ice cream!
- We're going to add some lunch items; we're also going to put soup to bed until winter
- Ice cream is now Kawartha Lakes; we like Maypole but had issues with delivery. And to be honest Kawartha is pretty tasty too!
- We're changing around the furniture and equipment. Won't impact you directly but it might make the staff even more friendly than normal. Or at least less unfriendly.
- We've got bread! Local grown, milled and baked by our customers.
- Other ideas: music at night, movie night, and maybe a jam tasting. Let us know what you'd like!

Grackles with clothes

As you can see, off to the right is our first run of shirts. We had t-shirts, some 'girly' shirts, a couple long sleeves, and – from what you tell us – not nearly enough of any of the Frankenstein green Grackle clothes. So, we're going to do more. When? Soon. Like, for summer. Probably with birds and writing in yellow this time to change it up, although we may decide to do something different at the last minute. We're crazy like that.

Celebrity spotting

Our staff picture of the month is slower than last month's, at least off the line, but it goes 400 hectares on a tank of kerosene. Look for Grackle sponsorship in the near future!

About Our Organization...

The Grackle Management Team is made up of driven, clever and good-looking residents of Schomberg. We squeezed in some graphs again this issue, of course. We regularly meet at Port Soiree, in the rooms where women come and go and talk of Michelangelo, and if you haven't been there, you should go. This quarter everything is running behind even more than last quarter, which essentially was un-reported. There's still not much you can do about it so hopefully you took our advice and learned to like it.
